8. Were there any presentations, films, practicals or events which you think we should NOT schedule for future BWS Camps?

17 No

More comments include:

“God’s not Dead 3. For me it does not depict real Christianity and some aspects relate to Catholicism”; “The Roar. I would say that Faith like Potatoes has a more consistent message in it”; “The Roar, God’s Not Dead 3”; “The Roar – I thought the message was weak and potentially harmful. God’s Not Dead 3 – The pastor was blatantly unfit for being a Pastor (Biblically)”; “Well I can say that God’s Not Dead 3 is not a good film at all! Most of the people in the film don’t look like they are saved”; “God’s Not Dead 3 – I didn’t agree with the depiction of Christians in hard times. Even so it still had a positive influence by our being able to discuss our views on the film”; “Ingenuity in the field – it was aimless and unBiblical”; “God’s Not Dead 3 – not a good representation of God’s Church or His Pastors”; “God’s Not Dead 3”; “The God Not’s Dead 3 film was disappointingly weak and shallow – not at all up to the standard of the previous two in any sense. A cowardly distortion of the conflict we are facing and its solution of giving up is dangerous”; “The Roar was not a good movie for me. It did not teach humility and dependence on God, it taught ‘follow your own dreams’; ‘I could not hear what the man said while drawing the pictures’”; “The Roar although not necessarily harmful, I felt like there are better films to show in its stead”; “God is Not Dead 3, the pastor did not portray Christ in a good way and some people seeking the Lord could get a wrong impression of Christ”.

9. In what ways do you think we could have improved our programmes or presentations?

Most marked this N/A. Other comments included:

“Everything was well planned and sorted out. Really good coffee as well”; “Have a longer Outreach – we only had one hour”; “Another three more days”; “Going more in depth on a hurting world i.e. paganism”; “I think that the topics I read before coming were partially covered. Such as dating. I also think some more modern worship songs in the variety”.

“More time to sleep would improve understanding and intake of the lectures. Also stricter and longer times for devotions”; “Having more, longer breaks”; “The program is powerful as it is. I like it a lot”; “Move time for Discussion Groups, maybe one free evening to have more time to speak to others, like a campfire evening”; “Extend the programme by at least 2 days”; “Repeat the Scriptures so that if we forget or miss something we can hear it again and write it down”; “More free time”; “Have sermons on the Holy Spirit and have us pray in tongues”; “More outreaches”; “Effective and reasonable management of time so that students keep productivity and attention”; “Teaching on what the Gospel is”; “Do more running than push-ups and leg crushers. More sleep would be beneficial; add Irish dancing as a teambuilding activity”; “Dressing by women especially by leaders – t-shirts or dresses too low in front”; “Average attention span is 5 minutes. Keep to breaks to improve productivity when needed and pay better attention”; “Keeping presentations on time, so that group discussion times do not suffer”; “Volleyball”; “Happy with everything”; “Christian Courage should have been more focused on one or two Bible characters with more application”; “More time for devotions in the morning”; “Being sure, as far as possible, that there will not be people teaching strange things”; “Arnold VD Spuy needed to stick to his subject and strengths. Arnold’s shallow stereotyping of the Reformed position was dishonest and slanderous and needlessly divisive. Unhelpful and disappointing”; “Some of the women’s clothing was inappropriate”; “Thank you- enjoyed all presentations, food, love and hospitality welcomed me and the joy of our Lord was experienced throughout the week. Thanks”; “Production quality of some slides”; “Leave out push-ups and do more running. Dancing can be added to PT”.
