

1 Why did you come to the GCC?

"I am a missionary who wants to improve and become more effective in the field"; "To learn discipline and how to get involved practically"; "To learn from radical believers who live and teach all Biblical values"; "To help prepare me for the mission field"; "To learn mission principles to apply in my nation"; "For training to be better equipped for the Great Commission." Most mentioned wanting training for evangelism and missions.

2 Were your expectations met?

Almost everyone said Yes! Many added: "Exceeded"; "Definitely"; "More than I could have hoped for"; "It was beyond my thoughts"; "By God's grace"; "Indeed, thanks to the Lord"; "Definitely!"

3 What have been your impressions of the GCC?

"Well organised; physically and mentally intensive; fun and exciting; jam packed with info and activities"; "God honouring, discipline, Lordship of Jesus Christ foremost, equipping with practical experience, passionate"; "Excellent, inspirational and encouraging. It should be compulsory for all teens and many older people will benefit from it also"; "Excellent teaching, very insightful and helpful"; "Well, at first it was shocking to me. I had expected just teaching, but it was much more than that, physically, mentally and spiritually"; "Insightful training and discipline of spirit, mind and body"; "A very practical course, true missions minded leadership with a heart for Africa and the world. Tough, but good (there is a need for this kind of experience once in a lifetime!!)"; "Strenuous, yet refreshing. Very enlightening lectures which brought illumination and revelation of God's Word"; "A very necessary course for Christians with a heart for God"; "This is a real training course which trains you to do what you ordinarily would not and could not do. It has really stretched my mind and body"; "A military type training camp for the training of Christian soldiers for missions"; "Very well organised. Everyone worked hard"; "A most unique and valuable tool/instrument to move people out of their comfort zones into missions."

4 In what ways have you benefited from the GCC?

"I have learnt to be disciplined in all areas of life; I've learnt to stand up fearlessly for what is right; I have seen my responsibility to be a man of God in society; I've gotten stronger physically and spiritually"; "I've become equipped and more confident to engage in the Great Commission, to train others to stand in the face of worldly opposition"; "It has challenged me to be more disciplined, not to give up but to persevere at swimming upstream"; "Very helpful in training me to outreach more effectively"; "I have benefited spiritually, mentally and even materially. I have also benefited in fitness and knowledge so that I can stand for what is true in the sight of God"; "It is amazing to look back and see all that could fit into one" day! When I was tired, weary and doubtful prior to an outreach, but entrusted and committed the work into God's hand, realizing just obedience, He will do the work, I have found Him to be Faithful and all the doubts and fears vanished like mist before the Sun"; "The practical outreaches were the best training to give courage to go and talk to people, share the Gospel and give them literature to read"; "I now know that I can do all things through Christ (I never thought in my life that I could reach the top of the mountain)"; "I have learnt a lot of discipline and become much more fit. My mind has been cleansed, renewed and opened. I have learned to appreciate team work. I have learned how to make an impact through Christ"; "I'm motivated by the work of the Reformers and challenged to read more about them. Frontline Fellowship exhibits the courage that challenges me to dare the odds"; "I've become stronger physically and able to persevere through things better physically and spiritually. I have been enlightened about things that I had previously taken for granted"; "My mind and body have been stretched to attempt greater heights for God's Glory"; "It has given me a good spiritual direction for the rest of 2010".
